2010 WorldWide Martial Arts Festival at Gaylord Palms Resort and Convention Center
Friday morning– October 21 – Workshops and Seminars
Friday Evening – Competition
Saturday – Competition & Saturday Evening Showcase

Though only our first year of this event; Director Rob Hartman has brought his ideas and the team that he has built over the past 12 years of multiple disciplined festivals to this event. WorldWide Martial Arts Festival at Gaylord Palms Resort and Convention Center will be an exciting event with competitor, school owner, coaches, parents, families and siblings in mind. This event is open to both children and adults of all levels of experience. Whether you are a participant, family member or a fan there is something for you at WorldWide Martial Arts Festival.

We have state of the art software developed specifically for multiple disciplined events that includes electronic bracketing. This is why preregistration is so important. This helps us start and finish on time with greater accuracy. Each discipline is coordinated by a knowledgeable authority in their respective discipline. This translates into a fair and accurate interpretation of your performance. Martial artists from all disciplines will enjoy the very best competition from all over the world. Competition will include the following disciplines:

DISCIPLINE VS. DIVISION	A Discipline is a Martial Arts Competition with separate rules, divisions and Coordinator within WorldWide Martial Arts Festival . Example: Grappling is a Discipline , Judo is a Discipline . Divisions are within a Discipline . A Primary Discipline is the one that has the most divisions. A Secondary Discipline is additional Disciplines you select after your Primary Discipline . A Primary Discipline must be selected first, then you may select a Secondary Discipline .
